Board Updates

Our Annual Meeting will take place on Sunday, 1/25/26, directly following worship.

To honor loved ones that are no longer with us, we would like to add birthdate/memorial dates to our newsletter. If you would like to have a loved one included, please submit their names and dates to April.

We will be designing and printing our own offering envelopes this year. If you would like to use these, please request them from April. Be sure to include the frequency you would prefer, i.e. monthly or weekly.

A Special Message to Our Church Family

I want to extend a huge thank you to our members for your generous help in supplying gifts for our Christmas Family. I told the guidance counselor that we would be willing to accept a larger family as we have always provided many of the wished for items. When I realized the number of tags on our table I was overwhelmed and hoped we could give at least half of the presents. All but two of the tags were claimed. Our Christmas tree was overflowing. As usual, we came together to help our community.

A Note from Pastor Janet

THANKS!

Many of the Psalms are what we call Thankful Psalms. To boil it down to a sentence they say "give thanks and give thanks often". I, for one, do not give thanks enough. I often fail to thank for all that is done by many people around me and also for the love and care that people provide for me and each other.

Thanks to all of you, my sisters and brothers, for your prayers, your concern and your support of me over the years in my trials of life. In my grief and in my sicknesses, you have "stepped up" to hold the church and the worship of God together – Thank you!

Above all I am most thankful of God's Grace-upon-Grace among us. The Grace of God never ends; it fills all of us with joy and love and forms a congregation of prayer and thanksgiving. As the Christmas season of celebration comes to an end, let us not end our joy of giving and concern for each other in our church family. Let us all sew love and thankfulness for each other and let us recognize how much we are given in return for this love of thanks.

I, above all need to say this more often: "Thank you for you and thank you for all you have given me in my years of serving you" THANKS!

Prayer: For Grace-upon-Grace, for the children of God who respond to this Grace with love and joy; let your light shine on us, your church, as we continue to receive the blessings of your love. Grant us peace and allow us to reveal our love for you and each other with thanksgiving. Shower us with your Holy Spirit and give us joyful and thankful hearts. Amen.

A Devotional from Pastor Janet

A Prayer for a Leader by Talitha Arnold

Give the king your justice, O God. - Psalm 72:1a (NRSV)

I am deeply grateful for the timeless wisdom of our faith and especially for today's psalm. Written 30 centuries ago for the coronation of a king, Psalm 72 is a prayer for any leader at any time.

"Give the leader your justice, O God," the psalm begins—or as Eugene Peterson's The Message translates it, "Give the gift of wise rule." The psalm continues its prayer: May this leader advocate for the poor, provide rescue to those in need, save anyone at risk from violence, be compassionate to those who are alone, and crush the oppressors. ("Come down hard on cruel tyrants," in Peterson's version.)

The psalmist affirms that a leader must exercise their power with gentleness and consideration, "like rain that falls on the mown grass, like showers that water the earth" (72:6). Throughout a leader's term of office, the psalmist prays, may there be an abundance of goodness and peace. The psalmist ends by encouraging the people to pray for the leader "without ceasing."

I agree. In this fraught and messy time, we need to pray for our leaders—whatever they are. Psalm 72 is a good place to start.

Prayer

God of all nations, help us heed your psalm. Give our leaders—and us—your justice, your compassion for the poor, and your passion for peace. Amen.
